

Gendai Reiki Ho Internal Regulations

Gendai Reiki Healing Association

Effective April 1, 2019

1. The representative of the Gendai Reiki Healing Association (hereinafter the Association) is Hiroshi Doi (hereinafter the Representative), the founder of Gendai Reiki Ho. The Association is located at the Representative's residence.
2. All Gendai Reiki Masters who have learned Gendai Reiki Ho and certified directly by the Representative are automatically enrolled as full members in the Association. Gendai Reiki practitioners who have learned the levels I through III from the Representative are automatically enrolled as associate members in the Association.
3. The objectives of the Association are to help expand healthy practice of Gendai Reiki Ho, promote friendships and learning, and improve dignity and morals among the Gendai Reiki Masters and practitioners.
4. The members have no obligation to attend or join the groups that the Association recommends.
5. The members may retake the seminar provided by the Representative anytime at free of charge. However, when the seminar is full, the member must wait for another time. In case that the seminar attendees are largely retakers, the venue rental fee shall be shared with the attendees. A seminar translation is available upon request; and the attendee is responsible for the translation fee. When the Representative organizes other workshops and classes than the main seminars, the fees shall be determined separately.
6. The full members may decide on the names of his/her school, seminars and workshops, and issue a certificate for his/her trainees. The school name may include a following phrase; "the Gendai Reiki Healing Association authorized".
7. The full members must use the Gendai Reiki Ho Official Manuals in the seminars.
8. The full members must abide by the International Common Standards for Gendai Reiki Masters (hereinafter the Common Standards). The Association may remove the members who have violated the rules set forth in the Common Standards. The removed masters and practitioners must not use the following names: "Gendai Reiki Ho", "Gendai Reiki".
9. The Internal Regulations shall be revised as needed.
